

for municipal purposes, and the assessment for town purposes, shall be the same as that for State and county purposes; and in case any real estate assessed for State and county purposes be divided by the town boundaries, the Burgess and Commissioners shall place a fair valuation upon that contained within the town limits and make a just apportionment of said assessment; should any property liable to be taxed for town purposes, be omitted in the county assessment, the Burgess and Commissioners shall have power to include said property in the town assessment, and impose a just valuation thereon.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 292. 1876, ch. 86.

599. The burgess shall be the treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the same, with security to be approved by the commissioners, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer; and he shall receive and pay out all monies and make a public report at the end of his year of office, according to the ordinances of the corporation.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 293. 1872, ch. 251.

600. The said corporation shall not at any time issue any note, certificate or other device, to be circulated as currency.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 295. 1872, ch. 251.

601. The burgess and commissioners may take up and impound any stock running at large in said town, whether belonging to the citizens of the said town or not, under such regulations as they may prescribe: and the sheriff of Washington county shall receive and safe keep in the jail of said county, all persons who shall be committed by the burgess and commissioners to said jail for a breach or a violation of any of the ordinances of the said corporation, according to the time of commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of this State.

1904, chs. 264 and 456.

602. The Burgess and Commissioners shall have power to regulate, license and tax all hackney carriages, omnibuses or other vehicles used in said town for the carriage of passengers for hire, and also all vehicles used for the carriage or transportation of freight or merchandise for hire, and all carts or other vehicles which ply for hire.

1908, ch. 565, sec. 295B (p. 1070).

603. For the enforcement of such ordinances as may be passed by the Burgess and Commissioners of Keedysville, the Burgess shall be and is hereby constituted the police justice of said Keedysville and for the enforcement of said ordinances shall have all the powers, privileges and immunities conferred by law upon a justice of the peace. He shall be furnished with copies of the ordinances of the town, and shall keep a docket for corporation cases, and therein record and make regular entries of